-----NOTES & NUMBERS-----

NEW RIVALRY?- This weekend's two-game set with the Tucson Roadrunners will feature the first-ever meeting between the two teams. In fact, with Colorado's jump to the AHL, this season will see the Eagles face seven different teams for the first time in team history. However, Colorado will play the Roadrunners 12 times this season, more than any other opponent on the Eagles schedule.

RUNNING HOT- Eagles forward Logan O'Connor has been heating up as of late, notching points in each of his last two games and in five of his last six contests. The 22 year-old rookie was signed by the Colorado Avalanche in July after a standout career at the University of Denver. In his three years with the Pioneers, O'Connor posted 43 points in 108 contests, helping DU capture a NCAA Championship in 2017.
