GAME NOTES

KEY TAKEAWAYS

TONIGHT'S GAME – The Colorado Eagles take on the Tucson Roadrunners tonight in the first game of a two-game series.

THE SERIES – Colorado will face Tucson 12 times this season, with six of those games taking place at the Budweiser Events Center. The season series is currently tied at 2-2 with the first four meetings all having been played in Tucson.

THE ALL-TIME SERIES – The Eagles are 11-5-0 all-time against the Roadrunners, including a 5-1-0 mark in games played at the BEC.

EAGLES' LAST GAME (1/4) – Manitoba forward Seth Griffith netted the game-winning goal two minutes into overtime as the Moose put an end to Colorado's eight-game winning streak with a 4-3 victory over the Eagles in overtime on Saturday. Colorado's point streak does continue, as the Eagles have now captured at least one point in the standings in each of their last 11 contests. Forwards A.J. Greer, Michael Joly and Erik Condra all found the back of the net in the losing effort.

ROADRUNNERS' LAST GAME (1/4) – Tucson forward Beau Bennett score with 15 seconds left in regulations to force overtime, but San Jose forward Jayden Halbgewachs would net the game-winner 4:32 into the extra session to give the Barracuda a 4-3 victory on Saturday. The Roadrunners outshot San Jose 41-26 in the loss.

LAST MEETING (12/29/19) – Colorado erased a 1-0 deficit, scoring four unanswered goals to defeat the Tucson Roadrunners, 4-1. Colorado finished the night going a perfect 8-for-8 on the penalty kill while also converting on one of five opportunities on the power play. Hunter Miska was stellar in net, turning aside 32 of the 33 shots he faced to earn his sixth win of the season.

UP NEXT FOR THE EAGLES – Colorado will host the Tucson Roadrunners on Saturday, January 11th at the Budweiser Events Center at 7:05pm.

UP NEXT FOR THE ROADRUNNERS – Same as above.

BY THE NUMBERS

HOME BODIES- Colorado has won five straight home games and posted a record of 5-0-1 in the team's last six games at the Budweiser Events Center. In addition, the Eagles have posted at least one point in the standings in the last eight consecutive contests. Defenseman Kevin Connauton has tallied points in each of his last eight home games, while forward T.J. Tynan has collected at least one assist in five straight games at the BEC.

THAT'S SPECIAL- The Eagles have now found the back of the net on the man-advantage in seven of the last nine contests. Colorado is 11-for-44 on the power play during that stretch, which is good for a 25% efficiency rate. In addition, the Eagles have also been flexing their muscle on the penalty kill, going 18-for-19 over the past four games.
