BY THE NUMBERS

STEPPING UP- Eagles forward Ryan Wagner is fresh off a two-goal performance in Colorado's 3-1 win over Milwaukee on Sunday. Wagner has now generated three goals in his last three games and has lit the lamp four times in his last five contests. The 23-year old has surpassed his offensive totals of last season with five goals and three assists in 20 games with the Eagles.

FABULOUS FEBRUARY- The month of February was very good to the Eagles, with Colorado going 7-3-0 in the second month of 2020. That record included a mark of 4-1-0 on the road. It was the second month this season in which the Eagles have hit the seven-win plateau, having posted a 7-2-2 record in December. As the season has progressed into March, a 3-1 win over Milwaukee last Sunday now gives the Eagles wins in nine of their last 12 contests, overall.
